

LL Station Interchange Totem

Trueform have designed, manufactured and installed Station Interchange Totems as part of the legible London product family.

The 4.175m Legible London TfL Station Interchange Totem consisting of illuminated TfL underground roundel, illuminated National Rail logo, illuminated map display and wayfinding information. Each sign has a unique commentary of the surrounding area with useful travel information and a description of the geography of nearby areas.

The totems will be positioned outside Paddington, Kensington, Bromley and Tower Hamlets station's and 21 along the pier